We're Powered By The Sky

tune: "Along the Road to Gundagai" (Slim Dusty) words and music by Jack O'Hagan, 1922, parodied by Paul Spencer, 2014

There's a way to defray,
Rising power costs today,
Now that we're powered by the sky.

Where the wind keeps on blowing,
And solar farms keep glowing,
Beneath that sunny sky.

That my daddy and mother,
Will love I can tell,
And the pals of my childhood,
Installed one as well.

So no more will I moan,
When the power bills come home,
Now that we're powered by the sky.
