

How to get 50% WOMEN into policy-making in Australia

- Many difficult issues are facing Australians today
- Corruption in politics & corporations paying NO TAX
 - Fossil fuel subsidies and fracking licences
 - Climate emergency – prevention and preparations
 - Habitat loss & aquifer water depletion
 - Military Spending (instead of on flood/fire-fighting tools)
 - Treatment of people fleeing violence & climate disasters
 - Food insecurity and Farmer suicide

Let ordinary Citizens deliberate in an independent truthful, respectful, facilitated Assembly.

Where women are 50% of those people!
Like in Real Life.

This is possible ... via Citizens' Assemblies.
What are they? About 100 randomly selected citizens, forming a cross-section of the society we live in, gathered together to get informed about the issue in question.
Young & old * urban & rural * women & men

Scan this to find out more.

Over a few weekends they respectfully deliberate on which policy options benefit the majority of all citizens, and protect the most vulnerable. The point is to find agreement, not to score points or denigrate others in the room.

Spread the Word!

How to get 50% WOMEN into policy-making in Australia

- Many difficult issues are facing Australians today
- Corruption in politics & corporations paying NO TAX
 - Fossil fuel subsidies and fracking licences
 - Climate emergency – prevention and preparations
 - Habitat loss & aquifer water depletion
 - Military Spending (instead of on flood/fire-fighting tools)
 - Treatment of people fleeing violence & climate disasters
 - Food insecurity and Farmer suicide

Let ordinary Citizens deliberate in a truthful, respectful, facilitated Assembly.

Where women are 50% of those people!
Like in Real Life.

This is possible ... via Citizens' Assemblies.
What are they? About 100 randomly selected citizens, forming a cross-section of the society we live in, gathered
together to get informed about the issue in question.
Young & old * urban & rural * women & men

Scan this to find out more.

Over a few weekends they respectfully deliberate on which policy options benefit the majority of all citizens, and protect the most vulnerable. The point is to find agreement, not to score points or denigrate others in the room.

Spread the Word!